

Yellowstone National Park Adventure

7 Days

Day 1 | Jackson Hole

Arrival

Arrive in Jackson Hole by 12 p.m. MST on the first day. In the early afternoon, we rendezvous in the main lobby of the hotel then head to lunch at a local brewery. After lunch, we crack off on a warm-up hike to take in the unforgettable Teton Mountain views.

Tonight, we gather for a welcome dinner in one of Jackson's coolest restaurants and then return to the hotel for a deep and rejuvenating sleep.

Day 2 | Grand Teton National Park

The Adventure Begins

Grand Teton National Park sits in the mammoth shadows of the Teton Mountains. This morning, we embark on a half-day wildlife tour in search of grazing elk, small bands of pronghorn antelope and lurking coyotes.

Later, we spend three hours on a relaxing float down 10 miles (16 km) of the impressive Snake River within Grand Teton National Park. After, we'll drive to our campsite and set it up together while anticipating a savory dinner cooked by our guides that we enjoy by the crackling campfire.

Day 3 | Yellowstone National Park

Geysers and Hot Springs

Established in 1872, Yellowstone is North America's oldest national park and home to some of the largest and most amazing thermal features. With nearly 500 active geysers, the park is a geology phenom. We discover the natural wonders of Yellowstone on foot and visit Old Faithful, Grand Prismatic Spring, the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone and more!

Day 4 | Lamar Valley

The Serengeti of North America

It's an early morning start as we take advantage of the opportunity to possibly see the wolves while they are still active. Lamar Valley is known as the "Serengeti of North America" and we'll be on the lookout for bison, elk and pronghorn, too. Each day is an unmatched, unpredictable and unscheduled adventure in the wild...that's the magnetic lure of wilderness.

After an indulgent picnic lunch, we ease into an easy hike to take in the vistas of the Yellowstone River.

Day 5 | Paradise Valley

Just like Annie Oakley and Calamity Jane

Today, we head north of the park to the appropriately named Paradise Valley. Along with our expert local guide, we saddle up for a half-day horseback ride up into the Absaroka Mountains and enjoy lunch overlooking the Valley.

After the ride, if time permits, we may visit the local hot springs for an indulgent soak. Our muscles will be happy for the thermal pampering after a long week.

Hidden Gems

In the morning, we lace up our trail runners and hikers to explore some of the trails that slice through Yellowstone's enormous 3,500-square-mile wilderness. Depending on the group's interest, pace and skill-level, we can check out backcountry geysers, descend deep into the bellies of rainbow-hued canyons or summit a mountain!

In the early afternoon, we'll make our way back to Jackson for our final evening together and reminisce over a delicious farewell dinner.

Day 7 | Jackson Hole

Onwards

After a final breakfast with your fellow Wild Women in town, our guide will take us to the Jackson Hole Airport for 11 a.m. We suggest booking a flight that departs after 2 p.m.

As you fly out and over the valleys, volcanic plateaus and peaks, there's something you should know: you're bound to come back!
